Dedication

To a man whose career is marked with unselfish devotion, who has stood by us in moments of despair, whose presence has provided support and faith, and who has given of himself to guide us to victory and to give us a standard to live by, we, the Seniors of 1965, with deep appreciation, dedicate the 1965 Spotlight to our teacher, our coach, and our friend,

Coach Bob Brooks

FOREWORD

What went into the making of '64-'65 at ECHS? It was a combination of many things. First, it was our studies, which brought us together in a well-rounded curriculum that gave us a chance to learn in many fields. There was a panorama of various social activities--the Christmas dance, Homecoming festivities, and the dynamic Junior-Senior prom. It was eager anticipation--the excitement upon receiving the long-awaited class rings. It was sweating out exams and the SAT. It was a late night, working on a term paper. It was a not-too-perfect Thanksgiving at Goldsboro. It was little things that we never really noticed: little things that happened every school day: the lunch count, changing classes, the "thought for the day", and everyone's personal countdown for that last bell.

There was disappointment and ecstasy, "normalcy" and crisis, hard work and horseplay, triumph and near disaster. As students, we experienced them all. In reality, as students, we WERE ECHS, and, in turn, it has become a part of each of us.

From a mere trickle at the first of the year, the list of honors bestowed on ECHS students grew to a torrent by June.

Some held high posts, such as Charlie Hinton, who served as vice-president for the state National Honor Society. Many received scholarships, such as Dan Johnston, who received the coveted Morehead Scholarship.

There were also a group of awards based on four years of work in school. These are presented at the Senior Assembly at the end of school.

To look back on '64-'65 at ECHS is to look back on term papers, extra credit in Latin, geometric proofs, study halls, chemistry lab, and book reports.

Remember the day you were unprepared for a pop test, the time you stayed 'til five working on typing, the night before a big six-weeks test?

All these things went into the making of the school year. From September to May, through rain, snow, and exams, we strove towards a day in June and the ultimate goal - graduation.

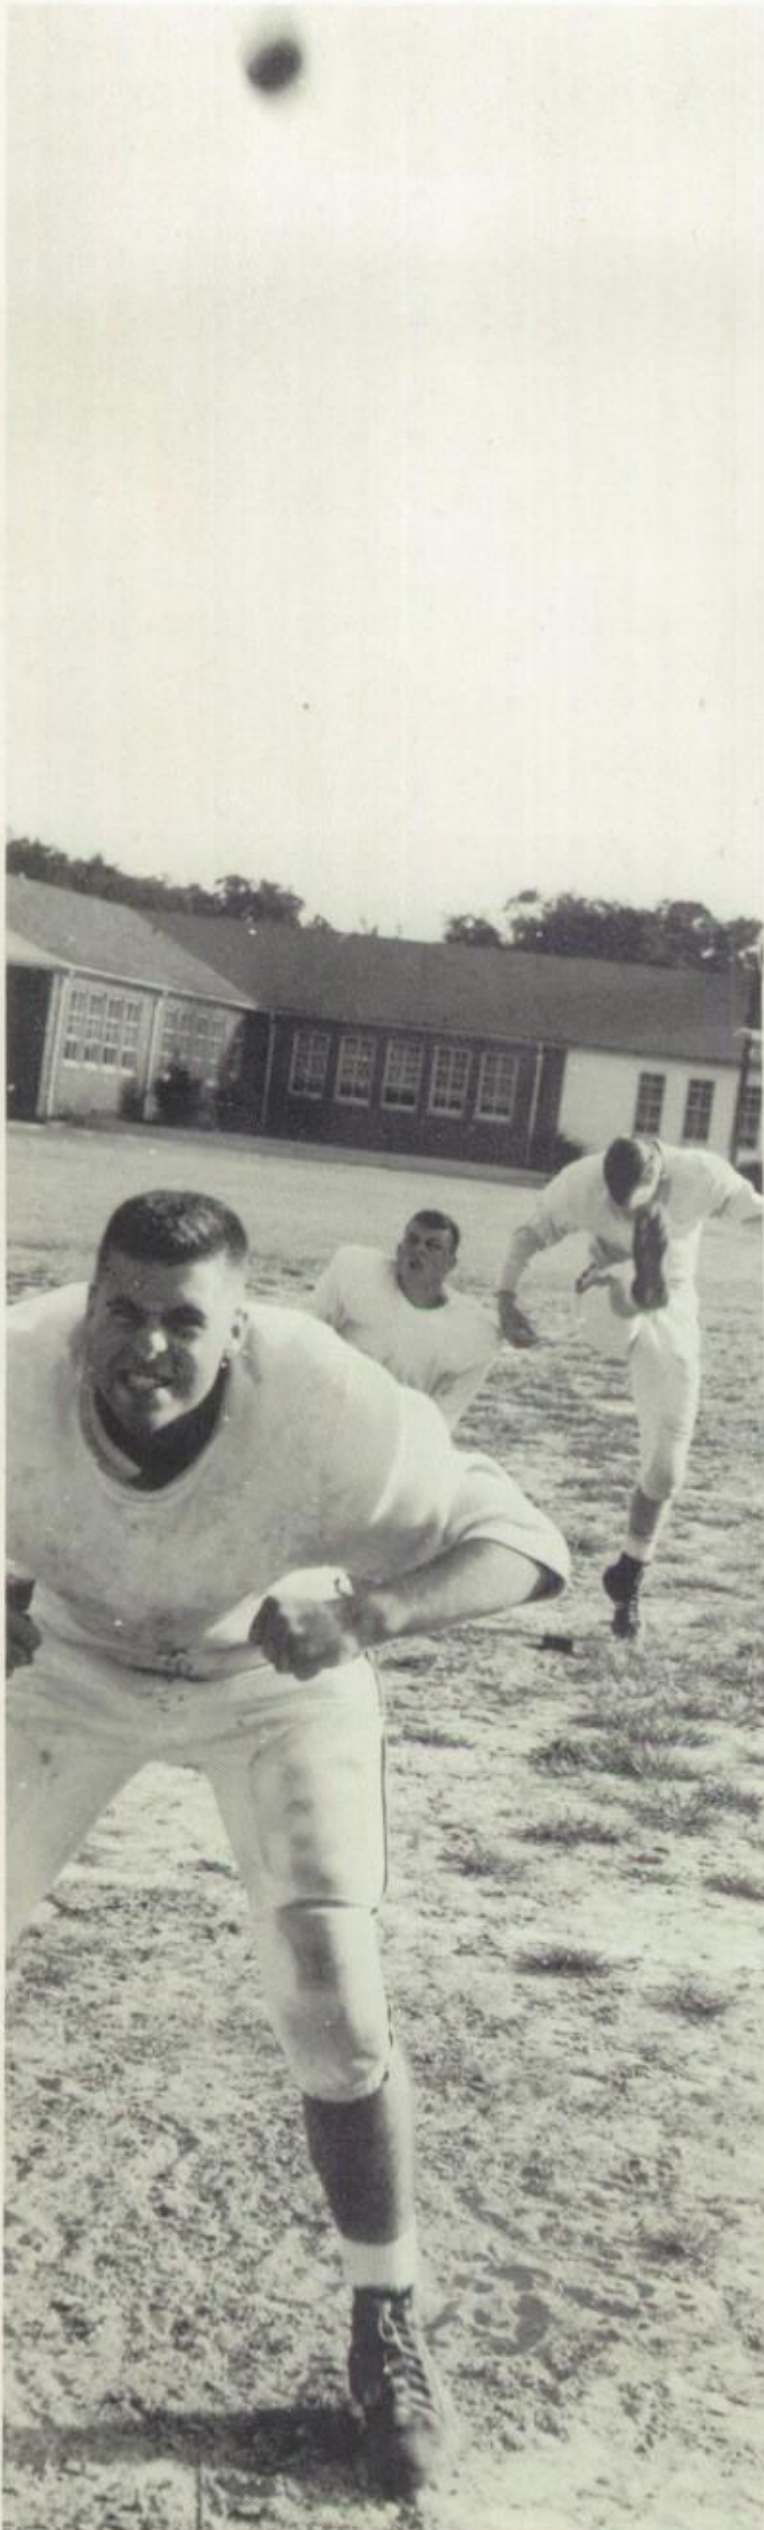

To do well on a big test, it was often necessary to "burn the midnight oil."

We competed

Some of the most unforgettable moments of the year came as the result of athletic contests. There were moments, like the fourth quarter against Northern and Danaher's last-second basket against Washington, that made all the afternoons of strenuous practice worthwhile.

The sense of competition and the pride of school were felt by the student body as well. Remember scrounging for a ride to an away game, and yelling yourself hoarse for the Jacket team, not because they always won, but because they were your team.

Through the sports of three seasons, Jacket teams, backed by an enthusiastic student body, strove for good sportsmanship and victory for ECHS.

'64-65 at ECHS gave students a chance to develop their performing talents and to attain poise before the public. Members of the band and chorus practiced for various concerts and gained an appreciation of musical values and of finding a rewarding means of self-expression through playing and singing.

Assembly programs given by the speech classes provided students with an opportunity to practice acting, directing and writing skills. Members of the Musical Tempo Club entertained at each meeting with musical programs. And Seniors spent the early spring in hard practice for the 1965 Senior Follies.

No one can forget the "Superior" performance by the Marching Morons at the Greenville JV game.

many useful services

Members of the speech class gained valuable experience by giving such presentations as "The Lost Elevator".

Marla Spruill and Tommy Goodwin were chosen as mascots for the 1965 graduation ceremonies.

We practiced politics in our council

Although there are many elected offices at ECHS by which students may serve, the most coveted is that of President of the Student Council.

During the fourth week prior to the end of school, amid vigorous campaigning, the entire student body of the high school votes to elect the president for the coming year.

In the election for the '64-'65 year, for the first time in the history of the school, John Jackson was elected on a write-in vote.

The moving installation service was the climax of the campaign, and served as one of the final happenings of '63-'64 and the first of the new year.

Above and below are scenes from the campaigning for offices in May.

The Student Handbook, published by the Student Council, is given to all students to help acquaint them with ECHS.

King Ray Bonney and Queen Pam Sanders reigned over the Homecoming Parade and the Homecoming festivities at the ECHS-New Bern game.

King Ray escorts Queen Pam off the field following the half-time ceremonies.

Queen Pam makes ready for the Homecoming parade.

Homecoming '64

With its pep rally, parade, and football game, Homecoming '64 was a perfect occasion. Although there was a de-emphasis in the elaborateness of the floats, the originality of the students helped make the parade a success. The game itself turned out to be a tremendous victory for the Yellow Jackets. The crowning of Queen Pam Sanders and King Ray Bonney climaxed the Homecoming festivities. The Student Council entertained at a victory dance in the gym after the game.

The Senior class float portrayed things to come.

John Jackson rode as the student council representative. Nancy Seaton was his sponsor.

The school year '64-'65 was in many ways both similar to and different from any other. Each of the 180 days brought new experiences; some normal, some unusual. Each contributed to the Student life of ECHS, and each helped make it unforgettable.

The seasons come and go at ECHS

Freshmen become the target of lipstick on the opening day of school (left), then get a more official welcome at the Freshman tea.

As late summer turned to fall, we enjoyed Thursday night pep rallies.

As Jacket victories mounted, so did student support, aided by the artistic works of the cheerleaders.

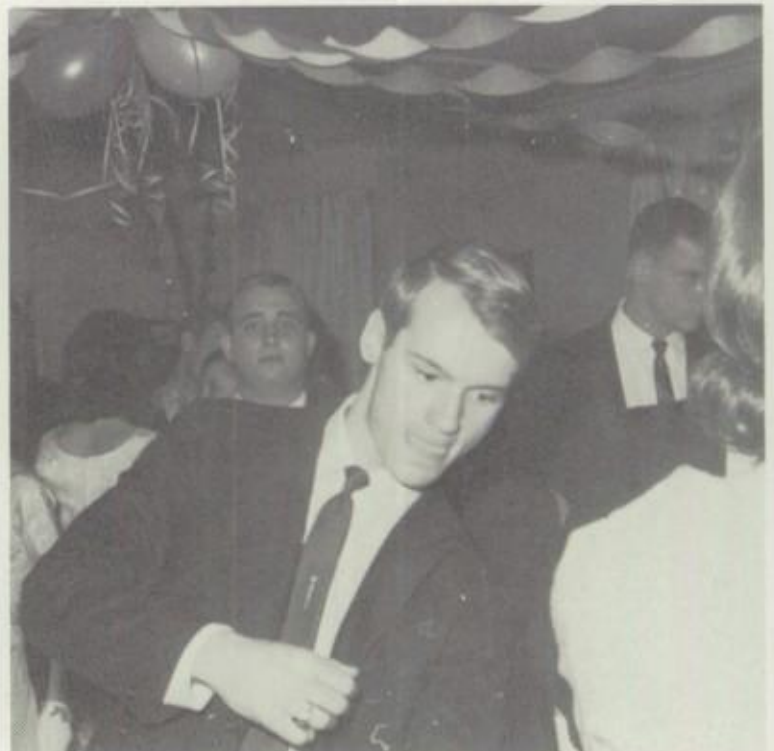

The student body also gave good support to the Baby Jackets at their Thursday afternoon contests.

One of the many highlights of Fall was the homecoming football game which saw Pam Sanders and Ray Bonney crowned king and queen.

The Christmas Spirit came to ECHS and students took a break from studies to enjoy numerous parties and dances.

Although happiness is getting a class ring before Christmas, the Juniors were still glad when they finally arrived.

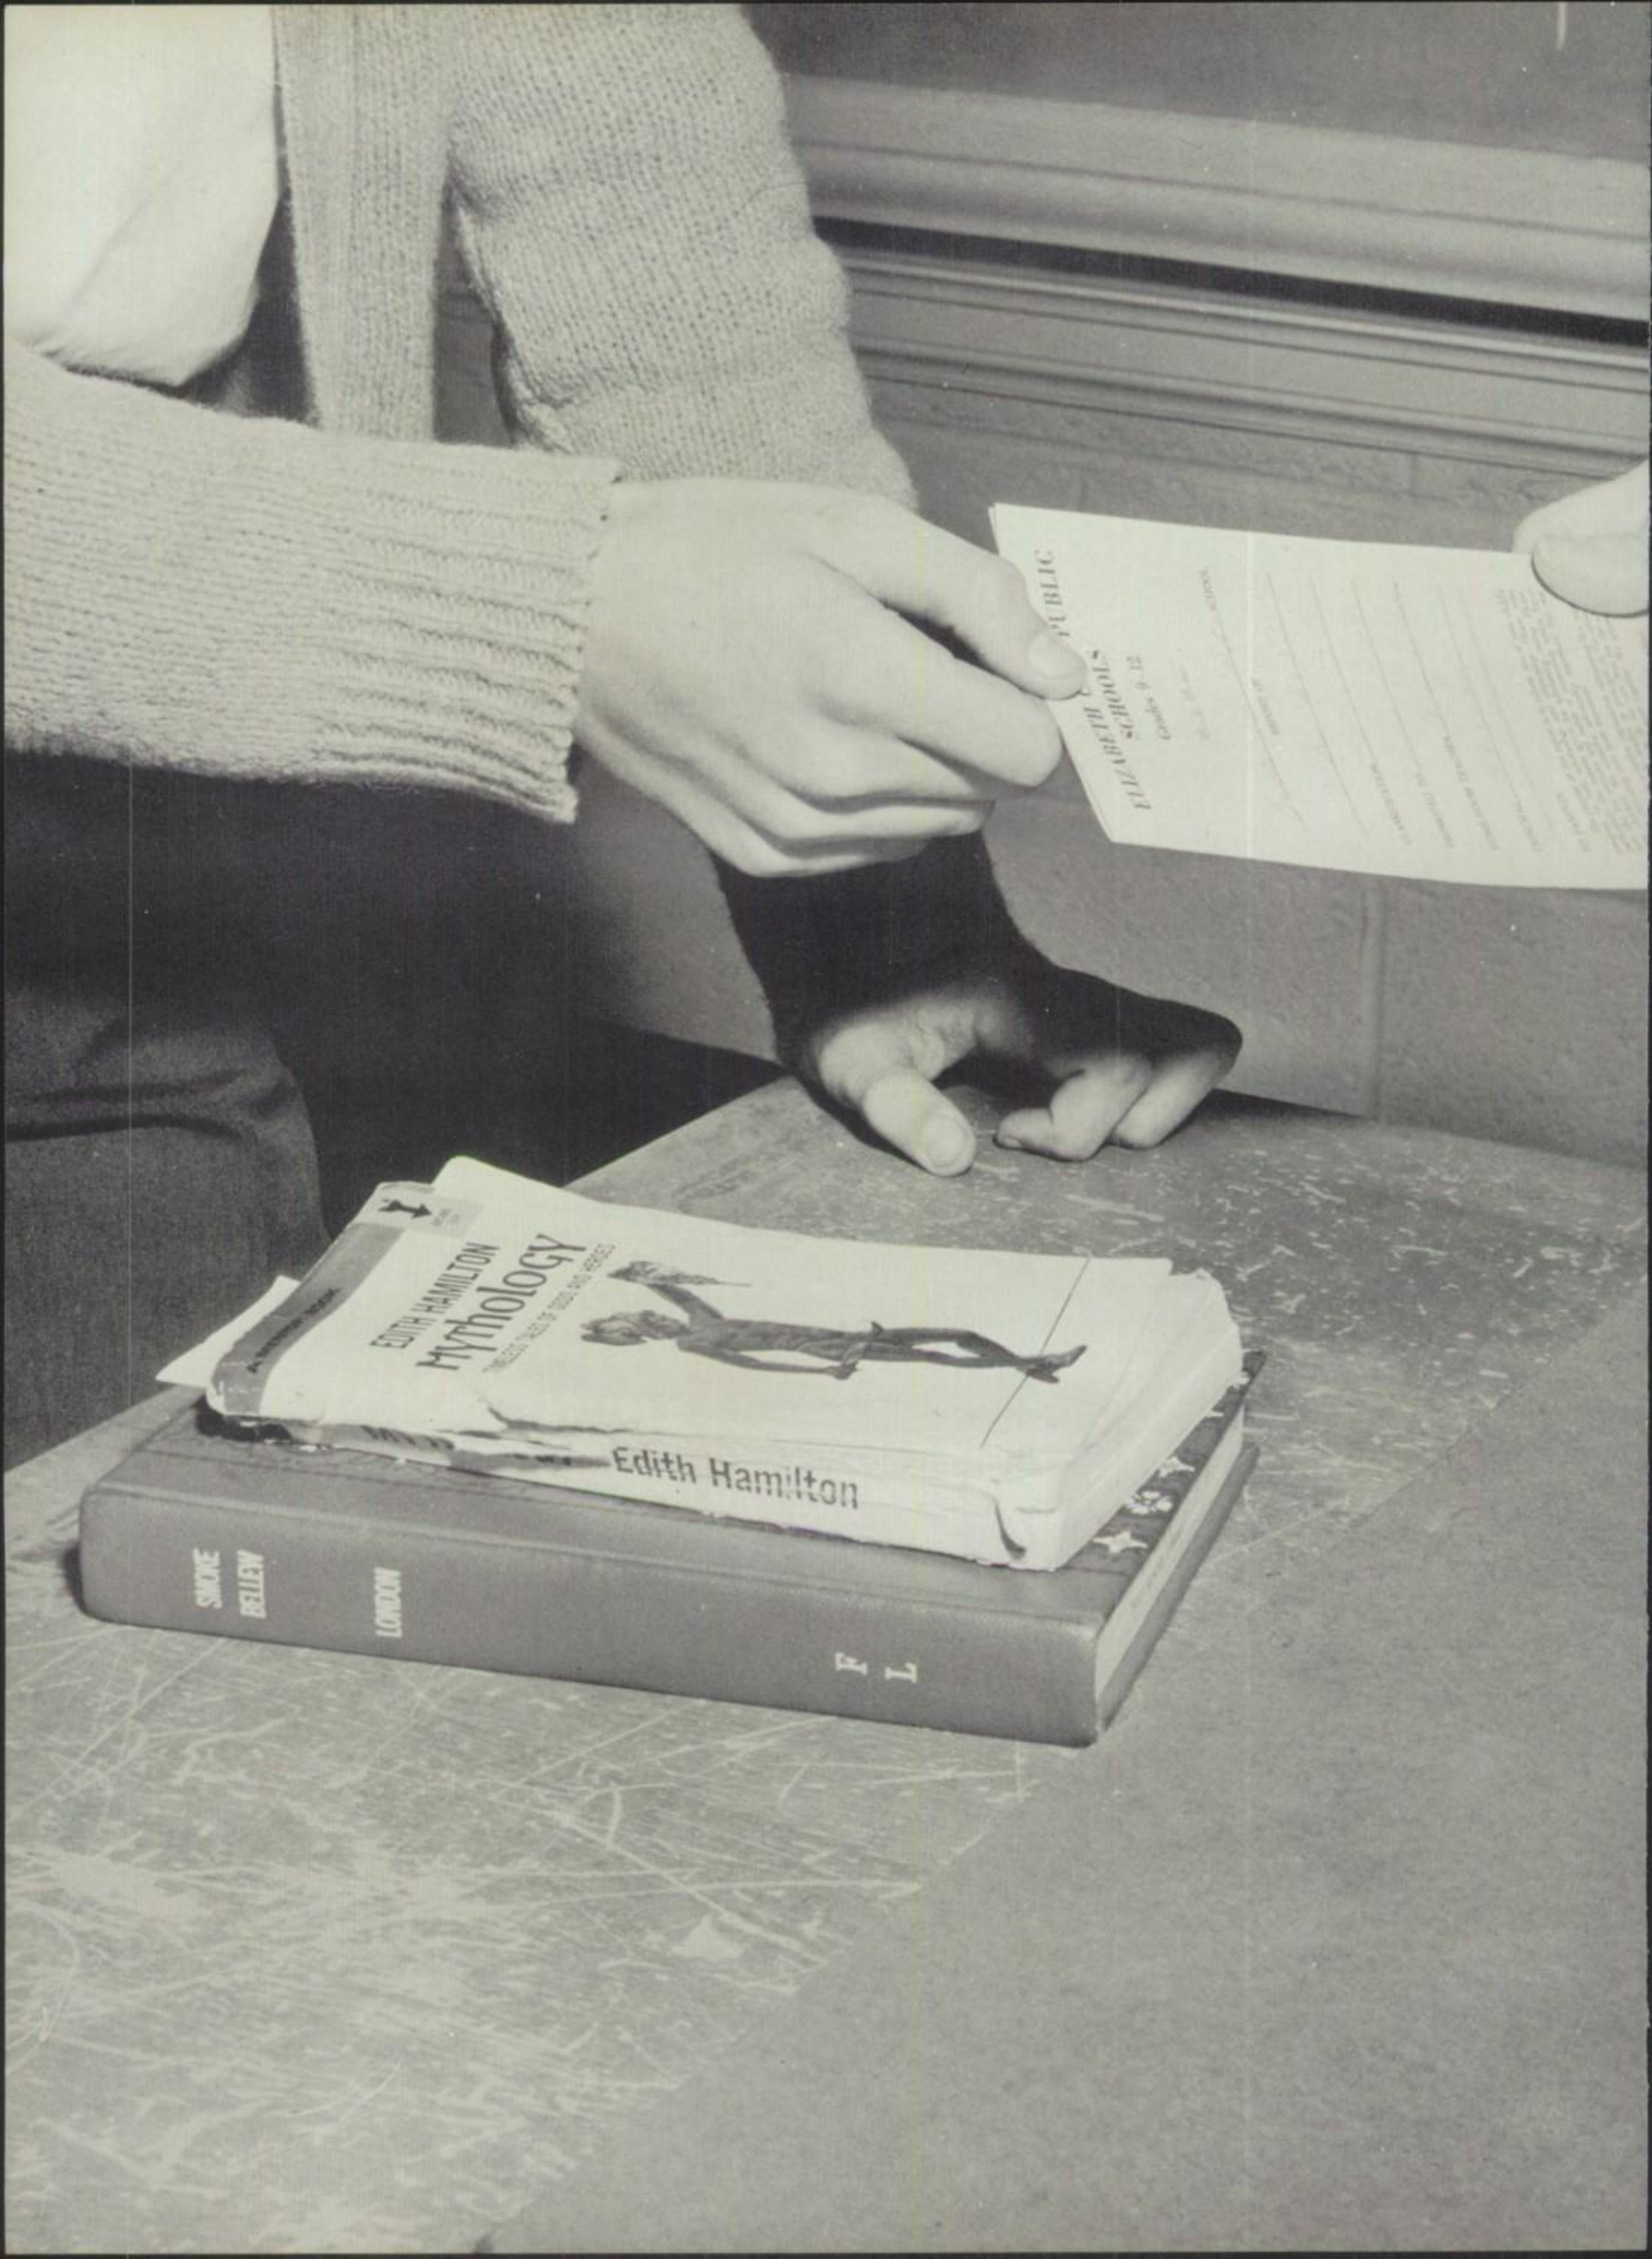

Basketball helped liven up the winter nights; there was also the year's second Homecoming which saw Margaret Riddick crowned queen.

Winter thawed into spring and the Yellow Jackets moved outside to take up baseball, track, golf, and tennis.

With the arrival of April and then May, days and study halls got longer and longer.

ADMINISTRATION

Led by Chairman J. C. Abbott, the members of the Elizabeth City School Board met monthly at the Administration Building on Road Street. They discussed and decided on many matters concerning the operation of local schools.

They worked closely with Superintendent Ben Fountain and Principal Harry Thomas toward advancing Elizabeth City High School and providing better education for all students.

It would be hard to define the work of Mrs. Miriam James, secretary to the principal. The outer office hummed with activity all day long and Mrs. James was ready and willing to help all who entered.

In late August the Elizabeth City Yellow Jackets' football team looked good "on paper". The News and Observer rated them fourth in 3-A. But predictions must be made with "if's", and an opening game is worth a thousand preseason words. The date was September 11 and ECHS had a score to settle with a "little town down the road."

PERQUIMANS

On the first play from scrimmage, Butch Colson broke off tackle and went fifty-five yards for a touchdown. It was just the beginning. When the dust finally settled, ECHS had demolished Perquimans, 37-0. The other touchdowns went to Doug Smith (2), Gary Hess, and Bob Burgess. Burgess got his by taking a punt on the ten and going all the way for a score. Jerry kicked four PAT's and a field goal. The defense allowed the Indians to get closer than the twenty only once, and then stopped them cold. The Jackets had played a great game to take their first win. It was not to be the last.

Tarboro

The Jackets looked just as good the next week when they went to Tarboro for their first conference game. They scored in every quarter and held the Tigers to only one score, that was set up by a Jacket fumble.

Burgess got two touchdowns in the first half to help give E. City a 20-7 advantage. In the third quarter, Davenport tackled a Tiger in the end zone and got two points for his effort. Following the second TD of the fourth quarter, Warren missed the point-after. He was not to miss again until the Jackets had the championship.

The score was 35-7 and ECHS had out-gained Tarboro 234 yards to 74. Meanwhile there was another team having a good night. Washington had downed New Bern 31-0.

Washington

Offense had been the big gun in the first two games, but it was defense that brought victory against Washington.

Leon Mason came to Elizabeth City fresh from four touchdowns against New Bern. To beat the Pam-Pack, the Jackets would have to stop Mason and company. In their first home appearance they stopped the Pack cold. Only once did Mason get out in the open, an 86-yard scamper, and by then Hess had put E. City out in front with an equally impressive 76-yard scoring run. The defense, led by Weeks, Onley, Morrisette, Davenport, McCaskill, Shannonhouse, and Hinton, held Washington to one first down and ECHS had an impressive 14-6 win. Previous doubters now joined in the chant "We're No. 1". The record was 3-0 and the Jackets were riding high.

Jackets Down Roanoke Rapids

Elizabeth City High School picked up its third win in the North Eastern Conference by downing Roanoke Rapids 16-0. Only rain and a muddy field saved "the other jackets" from a worse beating. Weather that turned the field into a muck which slowed but could not stop the E. City running game.

The alert defense pulled off another shut-out and accounted for the first score when Owens pounced on the ball for a safety. In the third quarter, Warren pulled some razzle-dazzle when, following a Kidd TD, he faked the kick and passed to Smith for the 16th point. The record: 4-0.

Pam-Pack for Conference Crown Edenton

In the first half of the game against Edenton, the Jackets ran the Aces right into the ground. They had a commanding 14-0 lead at the half. Coming into the game rated as the best in 2-A, Edenton had shown nothing to equal the Jacket game. But the second half was a different story. Home town fans watched in disbelief as Edenton moved seemingly at will. The Aces were fired up and the Jackets could do little about it.

Edenton got a fumble on the Jacket 2 and then suddenly the lead had been cut to 7 points.

Midway, through the last quarter the score was knotted 14-14. The Jackets got the ball twice more but could not move. The game ended in a tie. Both teams were still undefeated, but this was no conciliation to the stunned Jackets. The record was now 4-0-1.

Greenville

The Jackets missed two field goals, had one touchdown called back, and ran out of time on their last drive to tie the Phantoms, 7-7. EC took the lead on a seven-yard run by Burgess and held it at half time. Greenville came out determined to save their Homecoming. They got their chance late in the third quarter. Jones, their half-back, found daylight around right end and went 56 yards for a touchdown.

In the final half minute, Hess intercepted. Kidd passed to Hess on the 33 and the clock ran out. The record: 4-0-2.

Kinston

ECHS Football fortunes were at a low ebb. The Jacket momentum had been rocked by two straight ties. With Washington right on their heels, the Jackets could not afford another falter. But in the second quarter against Kinston, Elizabeth City finally broke out of the mid-season doldrums. Red Devils fans saw their seven point lead and a chance for a successful homecoming melt away as the Jackets put on two scoring drives to take a 14-7 lead. An 87-yard TD run by Burgess in the third period was icing on the cake. Kinston took to the air to pull out a win, but to no avail. The well-turned EC football machine was too much. The rejuvenated Jackets were 5-0-2.

Homecoming '64 -- against the New Bern Bears, and all the alumni who came to see a top-ranked football team were not disappointed. Five times in the first half the Jackets got the ball and five times they scored.

When it was all over E. City had put on their best over-all exhibition in years to set a modern scoring record and register a 56-13 victory. Their record: 6-0-2.

Jacksonville

The Yellow Jackets exploded in a wild and uproarious fourth quarter to down the Cardinals 34-6 and finish the conference race undefeated. The victory was a team effort with Kidd leading the way by passing for two TD's and running a third. Though incidents following the game tarnished the first championship for ECHS since 1957, it was still a grand night. 7-0-2.

Bertie

After waiting a year, ECHS finally got a chance to show Bertie Central how to play ball. The Falcons never had a chance of pulling off another upset. Finishing the regular season just as they began it, the Jackets rolled to a 35-0 win. Even with the Smith and Burgess sitting on the bench, E. City was too much for a hard fighting, but outclassed, Bertie eleven. It was good practice for the playoffs and revenge was so sweet! Undefeated and 8-0-2.

Northern Knight flings off block in pursuit of Burgess.

Northern Durham

There was a dead silence over Memorial Field. Northern had just scored its second touchdown and led E. City 13-0 in the middle of the second quarter. The Jacket offense was not clicking and the defense was giving ground to the Knight attack. Fans watched in silence as Durham missed the point-after. And that was the turning point.

Strong Jacket blocking gives Warren plenty of time to boot one against Washington.

The Jackets still were unable to score, but the Northern drive had been checked. ECHS could come back.

In the fourth quarter, they finally found the right combination. Colson picked up the first score. Unable to move, Durham was forced to punt. ECHS drove again. A Kidd pass to Smith and it was 13-13. The silence was gone, replaced by jubilation. Warren's kick made it 14-13. The school song never sounded as good. In the final minute, Hess scored a third TD. A brilliant fourth quarter brought E. City a 21-13 victory. 9-0-2.

With only three players back from the '64 squad, the basketball team looked to be the weakest in years. But the addition of two seniors, Roy Danaher and Mike Markhan, accurate shooting by George Owens and David Stanaland, good rebounding by Frank Davenport and a good team effort the Jackets managed to beat all but three teams in the conference and finish a respectable sixth. The wins came like this:

(1) After losing two close ones to Edenton and Tarboro, E. City journeyed to Washington to meet Jacksonville. David Shannonhouse scored points by the basketful on the fast break as the Jackets romped.

(2) Exam break came and went and the Jackets had not won again. A trip to Greenville to face the improved but still hap-less Jacksonville team brought win #2.

(3) The next night the Jackets were hosts to the new conference team, the Patriots of West Carteret. In spite of the snow outside and 6'8" Robert McLean, ECHS came out on top.

(4) In the next game at Tarboro, the Jackets were down 16 points at the half. With more shots dropping in and good moral support from bench, ECHS put on a great come-back and won decisively.

(5) The Jackets almost blew the second game with Washington, but Danaher's last-second thirty-foot hook hit the rim, bounced up, and fell in to break the 60-60 tie.

(6) In the final game the Jackets lead throughout to down Greenville by two points.

Bad news for Greenville--Roy Danaher shoots for two.

Colorful Cheerleaders

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Pam Sanders, Head, Linda Hopkins, Andrea Aiken, DeAnn Drumwright, Lauren Spence, Nancy James, Donna Pierce, Penny Williams, Jayne Jackson, Geraldine McPherson, Patricia Harrell, Jayne Culpepper, Sandra Culpepper.

In the play-off game the cheerleaders await the Jacket entry.

Led by Pam Sanders, the Varsity Cheerleaders had another outstanding year in the field of athletics and pep. Their spark and energy aroused the fans whose support spirited the teams on to a great year. The individual effort of each girl gave way to a squad which boosted school pride.

Painting banners, selling pennants, decorating the field and court, and serving refreshments to the basketball teams were many of the services gladly rendered by all.

Miss Patricia Finch, their advisor, could always be seen following the teams and leading the girls to nearly all games. Some of the most hair-raising experiences were "calmly" smoothed out by her. Each girl can truthfully say that it was a year to remember!

spirit sparked by J.V.'s

Backing the J.V.'s in all home games were the lively J. V. Cheerleaders, led by Gay Perry. Their vigorous spirits and their bright smiles sparked early fans into cheering the Baby Jackets through victory and defeat. Other useful services performed by these girls were selling programs at varsity football games, preparing drinks for serving the teams after the basketball games, and selling student tickets in the S. L. Sheep School.

Miss Sue Whittle did a fine job in her first year as advisor.

After an exciting first half, the Junior Jackets meet their Tarboro counterparts.

To create well-rounded individuals the associations of Elizabeth City High School serve to broaden and increase the interests of the student body. Giving practical experience in different fields and instilling the qualities of leadership and self-reliance these organizations build the citizens of the future.

1965 Spotlight preserves our memories

Pride and exultation, intermingled with relief, are some of the emotions felt by all those who participated on the staff of the 1965 SPOTLIGHT as the final deadline was met. Haywood Harrell, the editor, can recall with disbelief how he ever attained the copy, typing, photographs and the like for each deadline, but despite all of his frantic worrying and headaches he may look with pride at the outcome! The members of the Spotlight staff only hope that this annual will serve to enhance the memories of each day at E.C.H.S. in the year 1964-1965.

Published monthly, THE LOUDSPEAKER, our school newspaper, serves to keep E.C.H.S. students informed and enlightened on all school activities. All members work together striving to cover every facet of school activity.

The LOUDSPEAKER not only induces all those possessing artistic or journalistic ability to try their skill, but also furnishes the reader with a cyclo-rama of incidents, reflecting past, present, and future events.

Around ECHS, everybody reads the Loudspeaker.

Athena Tri-Hi-Y excels in leadership

The Athena Tri-Hi-Y, composed of Junior girls, has become one of Elizabeth City High School's most active groups. Under the leadership of Frankie Gleaton, as president, and Mrs. Wescott, advisor, the club has performed many useful and valuable services. They collected for UNICEF in October, and for needy families at Thanksgiving. In January they prepared a CARE package.

Leadership and service are goals

Character, leadership, scholarship, and service--these were the attributes of the E. C. H. S. students who attained admission into the National Honor Society. They pledged themselves to preserve and uphold the basic tenets of the club.

Under the leadership of Charlie Hinton, president, and Miss Jackson, advisor, the local chapter promoted several projects. At Christmas they gave food to a needy family. During the year, members offered themselves as tutors to students needing help in various subjects.

FTA fosters future professionals

Under the guidance of Miss Cooper and the leadership of George Bright, the president, the Future Teachers of America Club has again fulfilled its aim to inform interested students of the teaching profession. Throughout the year, they have heard many speakers who have told them of the rewards and opportunities of teaching. The members received practical knowledge about the field when they were allowed to aid some of the teachers in their work. The club has held a tea for the teachers and presented them with favors throughout the year.

Future Homemakers of America, with Miss Whiteman as advisor, sought "to contribute to the joys and satisfactions of family living" by engaging in studies and projects during the year. Their special studies placed emphasis on family friendship, marriage preparation, and understanding and helping senior citizens in the community. As an extra-curricular activity the girls sponsored a Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Serving as candy stripers in the hospital and maintaining the health room, the members of the Future Health Career's Club strive to promote interest in the various fields of health and medicine. Officers: Sally Stanton, President; Charlie Sawyer, Treasurer; Nick England, Vice-president; Floyd Richey, Secretary; Bill Commander, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The doors of the fascinating world of science were opened wide this year as the Science Club members became more aware of the world around them. They explored their interests and abilities in the various fields of science as they took tours to various scientific locations, saw movies, performed experiments, and listened to guest speakers. Advisors included Mrs. Barwick and Mrs. Turner.

Completing its second year the DECA club has proved a highly beneficial and successful organization. Those participating in this distributive education course acquire invaluable knowledge about the business world. Students contribute to efficiency of E.C.H.S.

Students of the office staff contributed greatly to the smoothness and efficiency of the office. The girls performed such duties as running errands, typing, mimeographing, filing information, and answering the telephone.

Advised by Mrs. Bright, students of the library staff assisted with routine work of the library for an hour each day. Members of the staff helped Mrs. Bright by checking in and issuing books at the desk, keeping books shelved, and filing cards for the catalogue. Because of their co-operation, Mrs. Bright had more time to help the students with the selection of books and research material.

Every day hundreds of students boarded the orange school buses and rode to and from the different schools in Elizabeth City. The dependable student drivers transported these lively passengers to the elementary and junior high school as well as to Elizabeth City High. By carrying out their responsibilities, the boys rendered a valuable service to the school.

service to school and community

The year '64-'65 produced another fine band at ECHS. After ten days of hard work at Band Camp, the band embarked on a busy fall schedule, participating in pep rallies and providing half time entertainment at football games. Before the year was over, the band had made over forty public appearances. These included such regulars as the Oyster Bowl Parade, various Christmas parades, and the Wright Brothers Celebration.

The Christmas holidays were filled with preparations for the Christmas party, which turned the band room into a festive wonderland.

In February several members participated in the annual clinic at Greenville. Three members were picked for the United States of America High School Band. They were Tim Aydlett, Mary Ann Jones, and Walter Midgette.

As spring approached, much work went into preparing for the annual concert.

Junior High Music

Each year marks off a segment in our lives. A time in which we gain the knowledge and experience needed to proceed in life. In classes we study and learn, work and play together. Through our studies of Caesar, Shakespeare, or triangles, our activities, and our projects, we draw closer to becoming responsible individuals.

IN MEMORIAM

Though nothing can bring back the hour
 Of splendor in the grass, or glory in the flower;
 We will grieve not, rather find Strength in what remains behind;
 In the primal sympathy
 Which having been must ever be;
 In the soothing thoughts that spring
 Out of human suffering;
 In the faith that looks through death.

Carole,

Well, one more year and it'll all be over. We haven't seen too much of each other this year but I know you've done well. Good luck next year with English IV and come see me this Summer.

Betsy

P.S. See ya at
"Sunday School"

Carole,

Well, English Class Hasn't be too bad this year. Right? Good. You have a crazy personality that we all love. Be Sweet & have fun this Summer. Watch out for the boys! God Bless.

Love
Sydney Bruce

Carole,

It's been another year, and you will have another one, but it's sure been nice fussing with you in good old 4th period.

Love, Joey

Love ya
Sharon

Carole, been in your English class and it's been good. I'm gonna miss you. Good luck in English class and in life. Be good.

PRINTING COMPANY • Charlotte, N.C.

Carole,

It has been nice but if I could have been better, I think. Have lots of luck and that stuff.

Kenny

Carole,

It has really been great knowing you these past few years. Next year when you are a senior, remember me. Good luck with all the boys. Hope that your senior year is the best one yet for you. Good luck in whatever you strive to do. I'll miss you.

Carole,
Still neighbor!
Well, I haven't known you very long, but the shore time has been -- well, agh, --- skip is! Just kidding of course.
At really has been fun knowing you and I hope that we can be friends for years to come.

Be good (if you possibly can!?) and break to many boy's hearts like you don't know who? Best wishes to a sweet girl and may you have good luck in every thing that you do.

Love ya!
Carol
David

Carol,

This year has really been a great one for me. One of the reasons is because of our study hall & English class. You have made these classes a real ball. We would never have gotten along without you. You're a great girl Carol, and I hope that you will always be my friend. I hope to see you a whole lot this summer, & I'll be disappointed if I don't. I hope you & Jimmy have a lot of good ^{smaller} times together this summer.

Love,
Jill

Carol,
It has been fun knowing you and living around you in school - You are a real slick chick - Hope to see you this summer - Love you,
Donna

It Carol, nice being in your English class this year. You are a real sweet girl and I know you will go far.
Be good and don't do anything
I wouldn't do
Good Luck
Michael

Carol,

It has been swell being in your study hall this year.
Your lunch was very good, but I wish you would put jelly in your sandwiches.
Lots of ^{sorry} ~~bad~~ luck in the future to come.

Love you
Willard

Ego amo te !!
I love you !!

CAROL,

Well this year is finally over.

I'm going to miss our wonderful history class & especially Dear Mrs.

Wescott. I've really enjoyed being in your class. A lot. Begood

And stay sweet.

P.S. I'll see you

in Sunday School

Love ya

Well Baby, this year great I've been point. I know lunches to take you all and camp

Carol,
It's been a right fair year hasn't it? if you look over History - Mrs Wescott Just think we'll be seniors at Band Camp. deb, deb, deb! We'll be Seniors next trying struggling under Mrs. Flood!!
Be good this summer o.k.?
Love ya
Pauline Stay that way - and you'll get along just fine. Be sweet - Maddie

Carole,
It seems that anyone who writes in your annual writes a whole page. Changing pens wasn't my idea. I can't think of words to express the loss I ~~feel~~ feel because I'm leaving you and Judy. You have both been real friends this year and I'll never forget you. There have been times when I thought you would drive me batty, but I seem to have survived. Thank you for all the good times and laughs. See you again sometime!
Be good and stay beautiful.

Your buddy,
"Simons"

Carole,
It's been great knowing
you this year.
Please be good become next year your a senior in the E.C. Band. (uhh)
Be good and don't get to much. Kevin

CAROLE,

I have really enjoyed seeing you everyday in the halls. (when you are there - wha!) I hope you weren't mad when I took Marvin from you. But, I think you will agree that it happened to the both of us. We couldn't help ourselves. (there will be another one along - I hope!) We really had a time with Judy in the jeep, especially that Sunday at the beach. I hope that we continue to be the best of friends and that we will see a lot of each other this summer. I know we will. I hope that everything works out for Charlie and Judy. I guess it will. May 30 - don't forget the movie we saw today. How to Murder Your Wife - Always think of it, at least at the right times. (Wow!) I hope that we will get into the same classes next year. We will drive the teacher insane. Be good this summer and don't do anything I wouldn't. Keep in touch and take it easy. Don't miss all of my hot softball games. Be careful and wise???

Your friend
Caddy !!!

P.S.

PLEASE don't die of cancer. Gives us a bad name around here.

Well, since you insist I will write some more. Thank you for all the sweet things you said about me. You are a wonderful girl and I'm glad I can say we have been almost like sisters this past year. I think I have confided in you more than anyone I know. Next to my Mom, you are a "true blue friend." Although we have had our differences, we have managed to maintain a great friendship. So much for that.

I can't express everything I would like to say in words so you will just have to watch my actions. Too bad things worked out the way they did for you? Funny. I'm glad everything worked out for me. I am happier now than I have been in a long time. I don't know what I would have done without you? your Mom? Dad to help me through some difficult times. Well I guess this is about the end that in.)

Julicy Nurdle / LDU / ya!

Carole,
Hope you and you know who will stay together. Hope to see this summer at the beach. Let has been been knowing you and being in the band with you. Hope you will not be too big a senior next year! Don't do anything I would next year. Wha! Wha!

Carole,
Well, another year has past and I still don't know what to write when it comes to annuals. continued <

Carole,
Lots of luck next year in the band. A lot of pleasure and worthwhile accomplishments can be attained in the band because I've gotten much satisfaction this year. Well maybe you band people will have a good time at bandcamp. Enjoy
it. Best wishes,
Jim
Pyatt

It seems odd that we (Love ya!) have almost completed our high school career. There's so much to say really, I don't where to begin. Ever since the 4th grade and Mrs Whitehurst we have been friends and I hope that we always are. I am looking forward to working with you in the Clarinet section next year and in the band as a whole - as seniors.
we have a great responsibility ahead of us. Love, and best wishes always,
Diana

Carole,
Boy, I must admit that you do keep in a "pickle" with the boys, but other than that, you
a right good kid
(I guess all of us have our faults.)
Stay as sweet as you are and never, ever change.
Lots of luck in the coming year and have lots of fun
this summer.
Love you,
David
Mundeen

Carol,
This year has been great, with typing and all the rest of the subject. I hope it's not too hard next year when I have typing II. Have fun this summer, good luck to a sweet girl.

Carole,
 Best of luck
 to a real sweet girl.
 May all your wishes come true. Have a good time this summer but be good if you can. See you at band camp.

Love ya!
 Patsy

Carole,
 It has been great knowing
 you these past two years. Especially my freshman year. I thought I'd never get all your junk in your cabin. Ha!
 Have fun
 this summer. (You better watch Judy before you get into trouble!) Best wishes always to a real sweet girl.

Love ya!
 "Bunch"

Carole,
 It has been real great being in the same history class
 with you this year.
 I imagine we worried
 Mrs. Wescott a lot, it was most of the time, it was fun. -- see you some this summer. Have fun (with Jimmy).
 Best wishes and happiness to a real and cute girl.

Love ya!

Love ya,
 Charlotte

Carole,
 Best of luck to a real sweet girl.
 Although we have had a few ups and downs, we are all glad we can all be together again. Keep that love and joy with you. Play with the boys and have a good time this summer. P.S. Good luck with the boys and have a good time this summer.

Carole

Believe me Carole, it's really hard just what to say at this time. Next year we'll be seniors, something which is very hard to realize for both of us I believe. He has a big responsibility ahead of us, bigger than both of you and I really realize. After next year we're on our own and it looks frightening yet seems most wonderful. This has really been a year Carole, and I believe both you and I have grown up so much more. We've really had some times together, I feel now that I've just entered another world and with Glenn I'm really very happy Carole. I know that it's going to be even different for me. I have a big challenge ahead of me, but Carole I hope you will understand any action (what a word!) that I may take. Although this year we really haven't gone around with each other, I think we've still shared some experiences through our talks. A year can sure change a person and Carole you've really change. I can tell because I've watched you through the year. I know you have had a 'fun-filled' year Carole, with a little disappointments; but we all have them. It seems that this is just my year, and I can never forget it. Glenn has brought me all the happiness in the world and I feel I'm very lucky to get Glenn. I think we'll be happy Carole. He's a wonderful boy and I feel that I'm going to be a very happy girl. Glenn has really changed me and now I think he's even changing me more.

I've, really Glenn and I, have alot ahead of us but we can do it Carole. Babe, please come to our wedding. If we make it this summer which seems to be definite, it may be a small one, but it means the right thing. I'll be looking forward to still be hearing from you west. We've been together over half our life and I hope we'll still be able to keep in touch. Enough of Glenn & me!! Ha!

Carole, I know you have had a rather upsetting heartbreak this year; but then, may you lose a little in life so you can appreciate what you have. You've got an exciting life ahead of you and Carole study hard and be good. Some seem to find what they want earlier in life, and in my case, that is what has happen. Still you and me are alot different. I've found what I want and now I'm ready to settle down so that I can do what I really want to for Glenn.
We've got a whole life ahead of us, but we just want to start it early, and I know Glenn and I will be so happy. (Not being prejudiced, I still have the most beautiful diamond in the world! Ha. I think so anyway. Ha. Naturally) Carol, you're a real sweet girl and May God bless you. You have alot to offer Carol and if you keep your head babe you will really go far. Have fun this summer and don't please go steady so long. Ha! A week may lead to things. Ha! Just a cut babe. Be good and have fun this summer - think of Glenn and me once in a while. Be sure to Keep in Touch. Pretty soon I'll let you know when the "big day" is, and you'll be the first to know! In about three or four years (Glenn says seven, ha!) will name the little one after you. (Ha!

At least a middle name, huh! (Yes) you can visit us then and babysit. Ha. But, like I said, 3 or 4 years, at least. Ha!

We have really had fun studying in study hall listening to "Mrs. Brown, you've Got A Lovely Daughter." Ha! She won't go to chips either, will we. Ha.
I'll stop now West, since I've ruined your annual.
Just had to say a few "last minute things." Have fun this summer, kid! Don't torture those flaps at handcamp try to realize what's ahead of you Carol -- a big responsibility for both of us, but I know we'll be able to handle this "world." We've done it for 17 years. Ha.

Watch those boys - Best of luck to a real sweet girl, Carol.

Sincerely
Pat & Glenn
Burgess
